

Bernard Coleman

Bernard joined the Acis Board in 2009. He has worked in local government for 30 years and prior to that worked in the retail sector. Bernard started his housing career as a Rent Collector for Sheffield MDC. He has held a number of posts for Sheffield MDC, Kirklees MC, Lincoln City Council, Mansfield District Council, Bassetlaw District Council and finally A1 Housing Bassetlaw. Whilst working at Bassetlaw, Bernard was tasked with creating an Arms Length Management Organisation (ALMO) to take over the management of the council's housing stock. He is now the Managing Director of A1 Housing. Bernard is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Housing.
