

Rod Must

Rod Must is a science graduate and certified Management Consultant who has lived in Lincolnshire for more than 30 years.

Following management positions with multi-national companies, Rod became a director of a consultancy firm specialising in marketing and management development. He joined the United Nations in 1981 and held senior advisory posts to the governments of Nepal and Swaziland.

Thereafter, he managed various overseas development programmes in institution strengthening and change management in the public sector for the UN, the EU, the World Bank and the British Government.

Rod has been an Independent Member of Lincolnshire Police Authority since 2003 where he is Chairman of the Finance and Strategy Committee and also represents the Authority on a number of other local and national groups.

Rod is also a Lay Assessor for the National Clinical Assessment Service and the Post Graduate Medical Education and Training Board.