

John Cawdell

John Cawdell is a Chartered Accountant and well known local businessman. He is a Governor of Lincoln College (which includes Gainsborough College) and has been a member of the Institute of Directors (Lincoln Branch) for many years.

He is currently Director of Business and Resources at Trent Valley Academy; a £35m project to build the first new secondary school in Lincolnshire for over 40 years.

He is a past Chairman of the Lincolnshire Society of Chartered Accountants, a Non-Executive Director of United Lincolnshire Hospitals Trust (2000-2002), a past President of the Rotary Club of Lincoln and has been awarded a Paul Harris Fellowship for charity work.

For 20 years he was a Partner and then Managing Partner of a Lincoln firm of Chartered Accountants, and for four years a Director in a large construction group. He is, therefore, well qualified to contribute to the future growth and success of Acis.
