

Alan Monighan

Alan was, for 25 years, the Managing Director of a number of major private and public sector distribution organisations providing logistics services throughout the UK and Northern Europe.

In the late 1980s, he established Aspley Associates which offered a range of personnel and strategic business consultancy services to small/medium size businesses and government-funded bodies.

Now retired, Alan has been a Board Member of Acis for over six years, has served as Vice-Chair, is currently a member of the Audit Committee and serves as 'lead' Board Member on Diversity matters.

He was also a Board Member of a Sheffield-based housing association for five years and is a member of the Audit Committee of North Lindsey College. For the past seven years Alan been a Governor of Lincoln College and serves as Chair/Member on a number of its sub-committees.