

Sean Brennan

Sean became a member of the Acis Board in October 2011. He lives with family in an Acis home in Gainsborough. Sean began his career at Lincolnshire County Council, in Business Support Officer and Youth Support Worker roles. Sean then moved to North Lincolnshire Council (NLC) to undertake a two year placement as a National Management Trainee. Upon completion of his placement, Sean gained a Postgraduate Diploma in Local Government Management. Following this, Sean took up the role of Community Planning Co-ordinator for NLC and is now Stronger Communities Manager. Sean also holds a first class BA (Hons) degree in History.
