

Acis Group Structure

Acis Group Limited, at its heart, is a charitable housing association and registered provider of social housing, regulated by the Regulator of Social Housing.

Through its Group structure, Acis delivers affordable housing, support services and community investment across the East Midlands, Yorkshire and the Humber, supported by subsidiary and commercial activities that help further its social purpose and long-term sustainability.

